ABOUT US

The 2nd World Congress on Oncology and Cancer Research (Cancer Research 2027) is an international platform focused on research developments, clinical advancements, and innovations in cancer prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and patient care. Scheduled for March 08–10, 2027, in Singapore, with online participation options, the congress brings together oncologists, clinicians, researchers, academicians, healthcare professionals, and industry representatives from around the world. It provides an opportunity to share research findings, discuss emerging treatment approaches, and exchange knowledge on current challenges in oncology. The conference aims to encourage scientific collaboration and support research that contributes to improving cancer care and patient outcomes.

Theme: Empowering Survivors: Advocacy, Education, and Community Engagement in Cancer Care

Hosted in Singapore, Cancer Research 2027 offers opportunities for international networking, research exchange, and professional collaboration. The hybrid format allows participants to attend, present their work, and interact with fellow professionals both in person and online. The scientific program will include keynote lectures, plenary sessions, panel discussions, workshops, and oral and poster presentations covering cancer biology, precision medicine, immunotherapy, radiation oncology, surgical oncology, cancer diagnostics, and survivorship care. The congress also highlights patient advocacy, cancer awareness, health education, and psychosocial support. Cancer Research 2027 aims to encourage emerging researchers, strengthen professional connections, and promote knowledge sharing that supports progress in oncology and improves the quality of life of cancer patients and survivors.

WHY ATTEND CANCER RESEARCH 2027?

Expand Your Network

Connect with oncologists, cancer researchers, clinicians, scientists, healthcare professionals, academics, and industry experts from around the world.

Discover the Latest Trends

Stay informed about cutting-edge cancer research, emerging technologies, innovative therapies, and scientific breakthroughs shaping the future of cancer prevention, diagnosis, and treatment.

Showcase Your Work

Present your research, share your expertise, and gain international recognition among leading professionals and researchers in oncology and cancer science.

Shape the Future

Participate in scientific discussions and exchange ideas that can advance cancer research, early detection, personalized medicine, treatment strategies, and patient care.

Experience Singapore

Discover Singapore, a globally recognized destination celebrated for its world-class healthcare infrastructure, cutting-edge medical technology, scientific innovation, and cultural diversity. As a leading hub for medical research and healthcare excellence, Singapore provides the perfect setting for bringing together experts dedicated to advancing cancer research and improving patient outcomes.

With a strong commitment to organizing impactful international scientific events, Iris Scientific Group LLC proudly presents the 2nd World Congress on Oncology and Cancer Research (Cancer Research 2027). This prestigious international gathering aims to foster collaboration, encourage knowledge exchange, and showcase the latest advancements in oncology, cancer prevention, diagnosis, and treatment.

Join us for three exciting days of insightful scientific discussions, expert-led presentations, innovative research discoveries, and valuable international networking on March 08–10, 2027, in Singapore and Online. The conference will bring together oncologists, cancer researchers, healthcare professionals, clinicians, academicians, scientists, and industry experts from around the world to share knowledge and explore emerging developments in cancer care.

We warmly invite you to be part of Cancer Research 2027 in Singapore for an inspiring scientific experience that encourages meaningful collaborations, promotes research excellence, and contributes to shaping the future of oncology. Together, let us advance cancer research, strengthen global healthcare partnerships, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of patients worldwide.

7 BEST PERKS OFFERING @CANCER RESEARCH 2027

- Live Presentation Opportunities: Present your research online and connect with colleagues worldwide.
- Global Research Exposure: Share your findings with an international audience in oncology and cancer research.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with leading oncologists, cancer researchers, clinicians, and industry experts.
- Research Competitions: Participate in Best Poster and Young Researcher competitions.
- Student Participation: Attend as a student delegate and gain valuable academic exposure.
